

FINOPTIX

SUMMER PROJECT '25

Intro to Algorithmic Trading

INTRODUCTION

- Algorithmic trading is the use of computer programs and algorithms to automatically execute financial trades based on predefined criteria such as price, volume, timing, or other mathematical models, without human intervention.
- Back-testing engine is a tool or system that evaluates the performance of a trading strategy by simulating its execution on historical market data, helping to assess its effectiveness and risk before applying it in live markets.

RESOURCES

- Intro to Algorithmic Trading
- Risk Management
- Python Implementation \(Colab File\)

ASSIGNMENT - 2

- Assignment -2 link ->
<https://drive.google.com/file/d/11BnoYfilsFm8o4A2RtMfqHUKfGbAeNdr/view?usp=sharing>